HAITIANS NOT "JIM-CROW NEGROES"!

THE ATTUCKS MONUMENT

PAYS TRIBUTE TO CRISPUS ATTUCKS

Boston's Chief Executive Places Wreath on Monument in Boston Commons—U. S. Scored—Deprecates "Jim-Crowing" Our Gold Star Mothers.

Boston, Mass.—Mayor James M. Curley, in an address delivered, recently, at the Crispus Attucks monument on Boston Commons, at exercises held in commemoration of the anniversary of the Boston Massacre, March 5, 1770, and the death of our Crispus Attucks, severely criticised those responsible for the plan to send our Gold Star mothers to France, this year, on a ship by themselves rather than on the ships bearing the other Gold Star mothers. The Mayor said:

"It is a pleasure in behalf of the city to lay a wreath here symbolic of the love and devotion of men of a race who helped make possible, by a baptism of blood, organized revolt and laid the foundation which gave the world in a later day what we now know as the United States of America. It is fitting that city and state should observe the occasion with the placing of the emblems of love, affection and esteem for the early patriots. A singular anomaly, this year, is the demand of certain individuals in a free land that the mothers of men who, through the providence of God, were destined to be of darker color than their fellows, should not be permitted to sail in the same boats with Gold Star mothers of light color.

Absolute Equality.

"Absolute equality should be the recognized order and rule in the life of America. I wish for America a broader, more liberal and humane spirit and temper than has been displayed in recent years."

Characterizing Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard, and Prof. David S. Muzzy as "quick-lunch historians who have tried to besmirch the names of those whom we honor as heroes", was made by Wm. H. O'Brien, head of the telephone division of the public service commission.

The Crooks

He further said that, "despite their hellishness in characterizing Washington as a man disgruntled because of his failure to acquire preference from the British government and John Hancock as a crook, such men as Attucks will be remembered long after such historians are mouldering in the dust and are forgotten."

A wreath was placed at the scene of the massacre by Mrs. Martha C. Kenswick. During the final exercises, at the Attucks monument, in addition to the state and city wreaths, a wreath was placed by Mrs. Ethel Gibson Russell.

AMERICAN MARINES

In Haiti Mostly Southern "Crackers," Hated "Like Poison"—Borno a Coward and Traitor, It Is Said.

(Crusader News Service)

Port-au-Prince, Haiti.—The first contacts with conditions here comes by way of the long quay swarming with men of all ages, ragged, half-starved, many decrepit and ancient. All jostling each other for the job of unloading, with its miserable starvation wages as they wait impatiently for the boat to dock. Stalking about in the ridiculous pose of "tin gods" are the American marines, most of them recruited from the South. They provokingly wear their guns and bayonets. In the harbor is the S. S. Rochester which brought the commission, with which Hoover seeks to allay the burning unrest against American imperialism. First appearances do not show any of the "improvements" so much talked about by the apologists for imperialist oppression. Only the marines are everywhere. And the natives would hardly accept them as an "improvement." They act as if they own the place. They and their families do as they please; they ride around in cars and hog the right of way, refusing to permit other cars to pass. Those on foot take up as much of the road as they possibly can, jostling the people and trying to establish in Haiti the rule of the South, and South Africa, of forcing "Negroes" to keep off the sidewalks. The populace hate them like poison. So intense is the anger of the Haitian masses against President Borno that the traitor is forced to keep his residence under heavy guard. The guard is furnished by the marines, and the gendarmes, a native force commanded by marine officers. Back of Borno's residence is the marine headquarters. The Americans are lodged in imposing buildings, with spacious grounds and a theatre, while the native gendarme are housed in a little barracks across the street, and crowded in like cattle.

Two Boys Saved From Death.

Little Rock, Ark.—The two lads, Robert Bell and Grady Swain, once sentenced to death for the alleged murder of a white boy, on third trial have been sentenced to ten years in prison. Had a white attorney not intervened in the case, and the N. A. A. C. P. backed him up, it is likely that the two lads would have been executed charged with a murder of which they were innocent.

He Returned the Chickens.

Paris, Ky.—A life sentence in the penitentiary imposed, March 11, by a jury in Bourbon circuit court on Jim Ashbury, for stealing five chickens, has been set aside as excessive by Judge Ben G. Williams. He will be given another trial, as new evidence was introduced, March 14, to show that he returned the chickens to the owner, the next day, when he was accused of the theft.

MILLER, MORGAN AND BLOSSOM

Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor Gazette, City.

Dear Sir: I read every line of each issue of "The Old Reliable" Gazette. They are food for thought. I glory in your ability and stand on race problems. I note that you say County Prosecutor Ray T. Miller's appointment of Norman S. Minor, is so much better than the nothing of Manager Morgan and Blossom. Yes, little better than nothing. But you must remember Miller wants Republican "Negroes" to vote, this fall, to put him back in office. But I am against him and I shall take that stand to influence all the voters I can against him for past tricks played on the race. I have not forgotten Mr. Miller. Let him run! Why did he wait until now to appoint Minor? We know Walter L. Brown has always took the stand he maintains and is not "a round robbiner." Morgan and Blossom think they are in for years, but are only fooling themselves.

Realtors "Talk About" Doctors.

Last week Thursday, after several preliminary meetings, filled with the ever-growing spirit of co-operation and getting together, the licensed realtors of our group in a meeting at 4713 Central Ave., formed the Real Estate Association of Cleveland. The primary object of the group is to render honest, loyal and efficient service to our people. A strong point, brought out in their meeting, was that about ten years ago large numbers of our professional men, particularly doctors, landed here from "down home" and put on a strong campaign to induce our people to patronize them, yet these professional men habitually refuse to patronize our own business people. The names of four "medicos" were mentioned who have lately bought, thru brokers of the other group. Officers and members of the association are: J. C. Hudson, pres.; H. S. Taylor, vice-pres.; Linwood Hogan, sec.; Robt. H. Riffe, treas., and Allen H. Dorsey, J. E. Branham, C. C. Robinson, Mrs. A. D. Boyd, A. Cooper, J. Mangum.

MORE "SOCIAL EQUALITY".

South Bend, Ind. — When Leo Bambinski, (white), arrived home, recently, he found his wife, Clementina, age 26, and her "Afro" sweetheart, Dr. J. L. Curtis, age 47, in bed together. Leo killed Curtis first and then his wife, shooting them to death in the presence of his three children. Curtis had been the family physician until about three years ago.

Montgomery, Ala. — Mrs. Emma Knight (white), who consented to her husband's selling their property "in order to go into business", woke up, last week, to find that he had eloped with his colored sweetheart, Miss Mary Harris.

THE "OLD-TIME" RELIGION

Preferred by the Hon. Joseph C. Manning—Merited Praise of Editor W. P. Dabney.

How the colored man partakes of religion, becomes so enthused over it and absorbed in it, that he communes with Jehovah and walks the streets of the New Jerusalem when he is worshipping in church, enjoying heaven while yet alive and not having to die to do so, is wonderfully portrayed in just a paragraph in The Cincinnati Union by the most brilliant columnist in this country. W. P. Dabney is the writer whose brilliancy makes that section of The Union scintillate and sparkle with gems of thought.

Mr. Dabney has expressed for me, and I thank him, why I like to go to worship in colored churches. I can, elbow to elbow, heart to heart, with that colored worshipper whom he describes, and I can almost touch the hem of his garment, as the preacher tells of the saving power of Jesus Christ. Yes, and I have seen this wonderfully spiritual people, as they seemed to me, just as Mr. Dabney says, to be in the realm of that glory land and sharing, tho yet alive, all of its heavenly bliss. Who of us or amongst us can offer better than this old-time religion for the inner joy of mankind? Who can the deeper satisfy that inner-longing of the spirit within with else than that emotion of the soul so beautifully told by Mr. Dabney?

White civilization, gone over to cool and materialistic life, is not the gainer thereby. The turning of the human life into frigidity and making cold the spirit of man, until he becomes a soul irresponsive to emotion, this may be culture and the creature of our existing white progress, but, for me, I'd prefer the religion described by Mr. Dabney.

FEATURES TANNER'S WORK.

His Famous Canvass, "The Road to Emmaus", Given Prominence in Atlanti's Civic Art Center.

Atlanta, Ga.—For several weeks past the High Museum, Atlanta's public art gallery, has had on exhibit, "The Road to Emmaus," the famous picture by Henry O. Tanner of Philadelphia, Afro-American artist, a resident of Paris for more than a quarter of a century. The picture is from the private collection of J. J. Haverty, local art patron and connoisseur, and was featured in an address, delivered by Mr. Haverty at the museum, on "A Century of American Art." The Atlanta Constitution, in a story about the painting, says of the artist:

"His works on religious subjects have won signal honors in the field of art. He is conceded to be a leading painter of such subjects, having received honors equal to those of the ranking artists of today."

Doings of the Race

The U. S. Senate judiciary committee, has O. K.'d the reappointment of Judge James A. Cobb of the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia.

The "Negro" newspapers should intelligently interpret for the masses the changing trends of the time and cease being chronicling sheets of crime, sensation and scandal.—Frank R. Crosswaith.

The Ku Klux Klan of Toronto, Ont., Canada, led by a minister, separated Isabella Jones (white), age 20, from her common-law "Afro" husband, Ira Johnston, age 30. They were living in Oakville, near Toronto.

What is known as the Second battalion of the Ohio National Guard, (the 372nd Inf.), has approximately 318 officers and enlisted men. The Third battalion of the regiment is in Massachusetts and the First is in the District of Columbia.

In addition to Col. B. O. Davis, now stationed at Wilberforce, O., we have only 4032 soldiers in the U. S. army. There are 100,216 whites. We have two cavalry and the same number of infantry regiments—the 9th and 10th Cav. and 24th and 25th Inf.

The U. S. Civil Service commission is looking for a $3,800 male educational expert, under 53 years of age; no examination. Applicants only file qualifications. The age limit does not apply to persons entitled to preference because of military or naval service under retirement age.

An A. M. E. College Sold Cheap.

Jacksonville, Fla.—Edward Waters College, an A. M. E. institution, and a $358,000.00 plant, was sold, recently, for $46.75, at sheriff's sale to satisfy six judgments.

WILL FIGHT AND DIE

FOR RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES—WILL NOT CRINGE AND TRUCKLE BEFORE ANY POWER.

Teaching the Afro-American a Much-Needed Lesson—His Inferiority Complex—The "Blossom Triplets" Given a Body-Blow!

The Haitian people are fighting a good battle. Their stand for the return of self-government, justice and fair play shows them courageous as well as intelligent. Our entire American attitude toward other groups is under review in Haiti. The American attitude of race-snobbishness is met with a firm resentment which is not one of truckling and a desire to associate with "white folks" but one of contempt for a people of arrogance. The serious phase of the affair is, the Haitians are ready to fight and die for their rights and privileges. Any race that is afraid of dying will accept anything, but a race that finds the highest ideals in life by sacrificing life to gain absolute freedom, will not cringe and truckle before any power. U. S. High Commissioner Russell is pictured as a tyrant, race hater and usurper.

This revolt of Haiti against the American attitude is illuminating, at this time when the powers of the world are seeking Naval reduction. The question of paramount interest is, do these powers have in mind to be just and fair toward weaker peoples? Is it their purpose to bind the five great powers together so that they will not oppose each other but leave the way open for either of them to do as each may choose with dependencies, especially those of darker races, the world over?

Haiti gives the Afro-American a much-needed lesson in courage and manhood. No other race of twelve or fifteen millions would be satisfied with the rank discrimination, oppression, denial of rights and unjust treatment that Afro-Americans receive. Slavery has left an inferiority complex in the Afro-American's life. Almost any one of them can be bought off and induced to forsake a principle, however fundamental to life, if some white man of power approaches him. The Afro-American sees his liberties, life, privileges, rights and person ignored and abused but he is too slavishly inert to resent and demand what is his. The Afro-American at present is unfit to shape or help set the standard of human rights and inter-racial justice.

It is the policy of the American white man to advance only the "Negro" who in a great measure approves of "white supremacy" and "Negro" inferiority. The "Negro" that receives a job can be depended upon to protect that job by doing what his white boss wants, whether right or wrong. What we have said is the general impression of foreigners so far as the "Negro" is concerned. We do not advocate bullyism, bolshevism and terrorism but we do advocate the policy of every race standing squarely on its feet and demanding and fighting for the things that all races enjoy.

It is evident to those who are reading the Haitian news that the United States should forthwith come out of Haiti. Unfortunately for America, it seems to have taken into Haiti the same prejudice-treatment and attitude toward colored people practiced here. That will not do in Haiti and neither should it do in the United States of America. If the colored men and women of this country would stand unitedly for their rights everywhere, conditions would change. What is needed in America is an inter-racial attitude that will force all races to be just and fair toward each other. There should not be in this country any privilege granted one race that is denied another.

It is our honest opinion that the reason why our country cannot enforce any law, prohibition or what not, is due to the fact that this country has permitted the South to do to "Negroes" there just as the marines are reported to have done to the natives in Haiti. The rush of northern men to the South for the winter is adding to this acquiescence. Southern states definitely deprive the "Negro" of Constitutional liberty but these same southern states are whining like pups about the enforcing of prohibition. When this country enforces the law that protects the life and liberty of black folk it will be in position to enforce any other law.

(Rev.) Wm. A. Byrd.

COMMUNITY CENTER LECTURE.

The branch library at Quincy Ave. and E. 79th St. invites you to a talk given by Miss Grace Meyette on African Backgrounds, this week Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Meyette lived two years in the interior of Liberia, visiting some villages into which no white person had previously penetrated. Her story is a fascinating one. This is the last of a series of Community Center lectures sponsored by the committee on work with our people. The chief aim of the committee is to promote a keener interest in the opportunities offered by the library. The committee represents all the branch libraries working in neighborhoods where there are many of our people, including Quincy, Woodland, Sterling, and Friendly Inn. All of these branches have book-collections of special interest to our people, as well as book-lists with reviews of all the outstanding books written by or about Afro-Americans. Three interesting books recently added are:

PATHFINDERS, by A. B. Thoms, a history of our nurses with interesting biographical sketches and illustrations.

BLACK ROADWAYS, by M. W. Beckwith, an illustrated study of Jamaican folk-life.

JOHN HENRY, by G. B. Johnson, a valuable piece of work tracing the origin of this famous race legend.

Visit your neighborhood branch library and ask for a copy of THE BOOK SHELF OF AFRO-AMERICAN LITERATURE.

Ohio Girl Barred!

Chicago, Ill.—Because of the policy of the Stevens hotel of barring "Negroes" except as servants, the National high school orchestra, which played, this week, before the Music Supervisors' national conference, barred from participating in the musical activities Miss Carolyn Glover of Columbus, O., who had previously been accepted as a member of the orchestra. The manager of the hotel is a southern "cracker."

CHARGED DISCRIMINATION

Then Proceded to "Clean Out" the Place — Chapin's Restaurant "Out of Luck."

The Communist outbreak in Chapin's restaurant, 220 Superior Ave., N. W., near The Gazette office, on Tuesday, was the result of the experience several of them claim to have had in the place the day before, Monday. It seems that they felt that a member of our race in their party in the restaurant, Monday, had been discriminated against. On Tuesday, sixteen young Communists went back to the restaurant and all but wrecked the place. Sugar bowls, silverware and dishes decorated the floor, and swivel seats were torn from their moorings before a police squad could respond to a riot call. A restaurant employee received slight injuries. Nine of the Communists, three of them girls, were taken to Central police station charged with disorderly conduct. Following the disturbance, Tuesday, police raided the headquarters of the Trade Union Unity League and the International Labor Defense, 226 Superior Ave., N. W., where some of the Communists had gone when the police appeared. Banners bearing the legend "Fight race discrimination—free our comrades," with which the Communists had picketed the restaurant, were confiscated.

Was It Dwight?

Cleveland, March 19, 1930.

Editor, "The Old Reliable" Gazette, Dear Sir: — Is "Attorney" Dwight Williams, who made the motion lauding Maurice Maschke and tendering him a vote of confidence, the same Dwight Williams who was chairman of a number of the Progressive-Government committee meetings, last fall, and who received several hundred dollars with which to finance said meetings, whose object it was, to wreck Maschke and kill the Republican organization?

Leo Bambinsky of South Bend, Ind., did a good job.

Roscoe "Cackling" Simmons of Chicago, is a candidate for Congress in the district now represented by the Hon. Oscar DePriest; primary, April 8. Roscoe only thinks he is a candidate, they say.

Leo M. Favrot, whom Dr. R. R. Moton has named as a member of his Haitian Educational commission, which President Herbert Hoover is responsible for, and the only white member of it, is field secretary of the General Education Board of New York City. The three other members of the commission are Afro-Americans. President Hoover asked Dr. Moton to take "a group of colored educators to look over the Haitian schools." Wonder how the President feels about Dr. Moton's selection of Prof. Favrot?

THAT SUPERINTENDENCY!

A meeting of our employees at the city garbage plant was held, Saturday, at which a proposal to bring about the removal of Abe Crutch as superintendent and the appointment of a member of the race in his place was discussed. Charges against Crutch may be drawn up and presented to Service Director Rees H. Davis, it is said. All of which is entirely unnecessary because Supt. Crutch will be automatically removed when his successor is appointed, and this last will not take place until "The Blossom Triplets" (Councilmen Payne, Bundy and George) withdraw their endorsement of the candidacy of Ormond Forte who will not be appointed Crutch's successor; and said "Triplets" get behind some deserving and capable member of the race for the position. But if they continue the present condition much longer, Crutch's successor will be someone other than a member of the race, and they will be responsible for this miscarriage, too. Crutch is slated to go, indeed would have been replaced, several weeks ago, but for the woeful lack of a little good judgment not as yet displayed by "The Blossom Triplets."

WM. HOWARD TAFT.

There was nothing in the entire career of that distinguished Ohioan, recently deceased Secretary-of-War, President and Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court Wm. Howard Taft, for our people to enthuse over. Therefore, we thot the least said, the better, as far as "The Old Reliable", Gazette was concerned. We have not forgotten "The Black Battalion", the martyred victims of President Theodore Roosevelt and his Secretary of War, Wm. Howard Taft. Nor have we forgotten the fact that President Taft loaded down the U. S. Supreme Court with ex-rebels, southerners who either participated in or sympathized with the wrong side of the war of the rebellion. President Taft's appointment of the late J. C. Napier of Nashville as register of the U. S. treasury to succeed Bishop W. T. Vernon, and his appointment of Wm. H. Lewis of Boston as assistant U. S. attorney-general, did not and do not begin to make amends. Thruout his career, he sided with the prejudiced South as against our people.

TO TAKE OFF CENTRAL CARS.

Two years ago when the Cleveland Railway Company issued its annual report, the Central Ave. street-car line was announced as the second-best paying line in the city. Since then, particularly in the last year, the service has been so bad that it has driven the writer, and hundreds of others living nearer to Central Ave. than either Scovill or Cedar Ave., to use the Scovill and Cedar Ave. cars. Some months ago, the writer called attention to the fact that the patronage of the Central Ave. street-car line was being driven from it with a view solely to abolishing street-car service in that street when the Lorain-Central bridge is completed, or possibly before that time. Now comes Street Railway Commissioner C. M. Ballou with the statement that the Central Ave. street-car line will be eliminated because of poor patronage for which the miserably poor service on the line is alone responsible. He does not, however, say anything about the discontinuance of bus-line service where it does not pay, or because of its "lack of patronage." Proper service, for which the writer has contended constantly for more than a year, will restore the Central Ave. street-car line to the second-best paying line in the city. The statement of a local daily newspaper to the effect that "Central Ave. has always been a losing line because it is closely flanked by Cedar Ave. cars on the north and Scovill-Quincy cars on the south" is not true!

"UNTIL HELL FREEZES OVER."

Rev. H. H. Proctor, of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly of Atlanta, Ga., recently severely criticised vice and other evils, particularly speak-easies, among our people of his city, with the result that about all of our other ministers of that large section of the "Empire City" banded themselves together and issued a statement, severely criticizing him, which the Brooklyn daily newspapers featured. Another indication of the power of vice in a large American city! Wonder how many of those Brooklyn ministers of color have a special reason for joining in the attack upon Dr. Proctor? 'Twas ever thus! Lord have mercy! Dr. Proctor announces that he will continue his fight on vice "until hell freezes over" and that then he "would skate on the ice after evils." More power to him and his kind! O, how the race needs them!

PRIME SPORT NEWS.

Johnson "Out of Luck."

New York City.—It cost Larry Johnson, our Chicago clouter, $4000 for his unintentional fouling of Maxie Rosenblum in Madison Square Garden, recently. The Garden is the beneficiary due to the recent ruling of the New York State Athletic Commission that fighters shall be paid only for the number of rounds they fight if the go ends in a foul, the balance of their purse reverting to the treasury of the club in which the foul was committed.

Jones Whips Malone.

St. Paul, Wisc.—"Gorilla" Jones of Akron, O., won the decision over Jock Malone, St. Paul middleweight, in ten rounds here, Monday night. The latter, a veteran of nearly 300 ring engagements, could not match the pace of his young antagonist. Boxing skillfully, Malone evaded Jones' powerful right in the early rounds, but he tired long before the end and "Gorilla's" gloves thudded against his jaw and body with increasing regularity from the fourth round to the final bell. Malone weighed 157 pounds and Jones 156.

The Hi-Y of Cedar Y, state champs, in charge of Capt. W. H. Porter, went to Columbus, yesterday, to defend their state championship title, won during the holidays. Coach Ollie Dawson went with them. Among the players who have starred for the champs and went to Columbus with them, are Hugh Magbie, Cleveland Jackson, Charles Belcher and Clarence Walker.

The Junior federation basketball team, coached by Ollie Dawson of Western Reserve university, is doing excellent work. The members are Ida House, Alice Green (captain), Helen Wilson, Annie Johnson, Babe Mitchell, Opal Owens, Otta Mae Grate and Naomi Morris.

TEACH STUDENTS OVER TELEPHONE

Cleveland Schools Transmit "Three R's" By Wire

An experiment in instructing students of the public schools by telephone is being carried out in Cleveland this year.

Teachers involved in the plan transmit lessons to pupils all over the city by speaking into an ordinary telephone. The lessons come to students through loud speakers in the class rooms.

The plan makes it possible for students to receive instruction in each subject by a highly trained and specialized teacher.

In reply to the statement that this would result in the personality of the teacher being lost, Superintendent R. G. Jones, of the Cleveland Public Schools, stated that in broadcasting arithmetic lessons during 1929 it was found that the teacher's personality was just as real to the students as if she were in the class room.

AFTER A REST

"Jones ought to be looking well after being locked up at the police station."

"Why?"

"Shouldn't a man look well after arrest?"

OHIO'S MOB VIOLENCE ACT

OR ANTI-LYNCHING LAW LEADS THE COUNTRY IN EFFECTIVE LEGISLATION

Against the Mob and Lynch-Murder—Three Years' Work of a Member of the Race—Also His Ohio Civil Rights Law.

Our mob-violence or anti-lynching bill was introduced in the Ohio legislature in 1894 and re-introduced in 1896. It took the Hon. Harry C. Smith, editor of The Gazette, just three years to secure its enactment into law. The Ohio Supreme Court has several times upheld the constitutionality of the law and it has been very effective. Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey have followed Ohio's lead and enacted mob violence or anti-lynching laws which are copies of our Ohio law. Several other northern states and at least one border state (Kentucky) have also enacted anti-lynching laws, in recent years, like Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The Ohio law follows:

MOBS.

Section
6278. "Mob" and "lynching" defined.
6279. "Serious injury" defined.
6280. Damages in case of assault.

If a mob carries a prisoner into another county, or comes from another county to commit violence on a prisoner brought from such county for safekeeping, the county in which the lynching is committed may recover the amount of the judgment and costs from the county from which the mob came, unless there was contributory negligence on the part of officials of such county in failing to protect such prisoner or dispurse such mob. (93 v. 163 11.)

Section 6289. This chapter shall not relieve a person concerned in such lynching from prosecution for homicide or assault for engaging therein. (93 v. 163 12.)

OUR OHIO CIVIL RIGHTS LAW

Upon the request of many readers of The Gazette we print below the text of the Hon. Harry C. Smith's Ohio Civil Rights law which the editor had enacted while a member of the 71st General Assembly, in 1894:

The General Code of Ohio:

Sec. 12940. Whoever, being the proprietor or his employee, keeper or manager of an inn, restaurant, eating house, barber-shop, public conveyance by land or water, theater or other place of public accommodation and amusement, denies to a citizen, except for reasons applicable alike to all citizens and regardless of race or color, the full enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both.

Sec. 12941. Whoever violates the next preceding section shall also pay not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundreds dollars to the person aggrieved thereby to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where such offense was committed.

This law has repeatedly been held constitutional and good law by the Ohio Supreme court. The trouble is our people will not use it as often as they should, but expect it to do for them what they should and must do for themselves, under it, in the courts.

CHARACTER.

Character, like a fine old tree, matures slowly and is a riper growth than success that is forced as hothouse products are forced. Character in a newspaper develops through years of service to the people. For forty-five years The Gazette has been serving our people of this country. It has gathered a reader clientele whose tastes it reflects, and whose power and responsiveness to buy are direct measures of its present importance to every advertiser.

EDITOR.

PROTEST! PROTEST!!

To submit in silence when we should protest makes cowards out of men. The human race has climbed on protest. Had no voice been raised against injustice, ignorance and lust, the inquisition yet would serve the law, and guillotines decide our least disputes. The few who dare, must speak and speak again to right the wrongs of many.

WINTER, as a rule, keeps you closer at home, and you see less of your friends in other towns.

But that is no reason why you should hear less from them. Many people are calling their out-of-town friends by telephone just as they casually talk to those in town.

Out-of-town telephone service today is much like the local service. Give "Long Distance" the out-of-town number and you are connected while you hold the line; you hear as clearly as when you talk to a neighbor.

The cost is surprisingly low. For 25 cents you can send your voice 25 miles, or 100 miles for 70 cents.

"NOT THE LARGEST, BUT THE BEST!"

Little Rock, Ark., June 16, '25.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor, Gazette,
Cleveland, O.

Dear Friend:—Long live The Gazette! a welcome friend to the Ricks-Demby family for forty-three years. We boast of being among the oldest continuous subscribers of The Gazette—not the largest but the best in essentials and the most dependable of race journals.

Wishing you continued good health and success, we are as ever,

Very truly yours,
(Bishop) Edward T. and Nettie M. Demby.

THE MAN WHO DARES

"I honor the man who in the conscientious discharge of his duty dares to stand alone; the world, with ignorant, intolerant judgment, may condemn, the countenances of relatives may be averted, and the hearts of friends grow cold, but the sense of duty done shall be sweeter than the applause of the world, the countenances of relatives or the hearts of friends."—Charles Sumner.

"WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD"!

Cleveland, O., Aug. 28th, 1925.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor, Gazette,

Dear Friend:—I have read the latest copy of The Gazette through and after reading it, I can truthfully say: It is worth its weight in gold!

I admire true manhood—a man who, seeing injustice and oppression, dares, within the limits of the law, to expose it and, if possible smite it. You and I have frequently, during the forty-two years since the birth of The Gazette, been, as the Scotch would say, like two McNeils, but when I find a man, such as you, who consistently, and persistently, through nearly half a century, puts his race foremost in his life struggle, I take off my hat to him, as being a true friend of our class. Long life to you and The Gazette.

Yours for the right,
John P. Green.
(Former Member, Ohio State Senate.)

YOU KNOW ME, AL — Keefe Finally Got It Across — By RING LARDNER

Friend Al,
We ain't none too well off here in Paris because Dugan come over here to fight and can't get no matches because some of these Frogs battle with their feet as well as their hands so he matched me to fight one tonight I figure I ain't taking no chance going against a foot fighter because I played in the same league with Ty Cobb. These Frenchmen at least don't wear no spikes into the ring.
Well, they offered me twenty-five thousand francs for my end, win, lose, or draw which is only about a thousand bucks in our money, and I'll take a kick on the chin for that when it means getting home. If I can't beat a ballet dancer, then I'm crazy. None of these Frogs look so tough to me they use manhole covers for fiddle-winks. The big show takes place tonight. Watch the papers.
Your pal,
Jack Keefe.

Newbell N. Puckett, assistant professor of sociology at Western Reserve university, addressed the Judean College club, Sunday afternoon, at Eldred hall on "Negro Superstitions." Prof. Puckett spent a number of years in the south and has written several books on "Negro" life.

The complimentary mass meeting held, Sunday evening, at St. Mark's Presby. church in honor of Nathaniel L. Hubbard, and the senior class of Central high school of which he is president, proved a very interesting affair. Special music was provided by St. Mark's choir; Dr. C. Lee Jefferson, pastor.

A. J. Truley, E. 69th St., won first prize at the dog show, last week at Central Armory, with his St. Bernard, "Don Barry II of Hayward." Dogs from all parts of the country competed for prizes. Mr. Truley is to be congratulated upon his success which doubtless means a good deal in dollars and cents.

The Civil Service Commission will hold an examination for deputy dog-warden on April 5; for paving and street permit inspector, April 11; for maintenance man (board), April 12; for hostler, April 17; for building engineman (county), April 19; for bill-collection supervisor, April 22; for greenskeeper, April 23; and for Sr. draftsman (architectural), April 24.

The local branch of our National Association of Musicians has organized a junior chapter. Officers: John H. Early, Jr., pres.; Louise McCarroll, vice-pres.; Jas. Lemon, sec.; Miss M. Owens, treas. Orrin Suthern, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Suthern, sponsored the organization. He is organist of St. Andrews' P. E. church, and a very promising young musician.

We certainly favor former City Treasurer Adam Damm's suggestion of an elective mayor and a councilman for each ward, the latter being residents of their bailiwicks. The manager plan is not only a misfit, but also obsolete when it is remembered that seventy-seven American cities have abandoned it and that, with the exception of Cleveland and Cincinnati, there are no other large cities in the country burdened with it.

World war veterans, at present suffering from disability or disease resulting from military service, must file application for disability compensation before April 6. Claims are filed with the U. S. veterans' bureau, 327 Hanna Bldg. Forms on which to make application and information on disability compensation in connection with old as well as new claims can be obtained at the central claims bureau.

Mrs. Laura Hammet (white), E. 137th St., has entered suit in common pleas court for $5,000 damages against the county for injuries sustained in the Public Square, recently, when the police charged a crowd of the jobless in a demonstration. Mrs. Hammet's nose was broken and she was severely bruised when caught in the trampling crowd. Her suit has been instituted under Hon. Harry C. Smith's Ohio Anti-Lynching law.

Major Howard C. Gilbert, of the 372d Inf., was the guest of honor at a dinner given, Thursday evening, at the P. W. A., by the local Citizens' com. having charge of the arrangements to attend the "Presentation of Colors" to the Second Battalion at Columbus, April 16. The Major is connected with the State Adjutant General's department at Columbus, and the Citizens' committee is working in conjunction with Lemuel T. Boydston Post, American Legion.

A group of wealthy white friends have pledged the sum of $5,445 yearly for three years to the N. A. A. C. P. Mr. Wm. Rosenwald, a son of Mr. Julius Rosenwald, philanthropist, led in this movement with a $1000 pledge. The $5,445 yearly for three years may and may not cover the salary of Prof. W. E. B. DuBois, one officer of the organization, but "it will help", we suppose.

As we have taken the occasion to say on several occasions in the past, we repeat now: The Manager Plan of city government as far as Cleveland is concerned should be "junked." It may be a good thing for villages and small towns, but has been a perfect failure as far as Cleveland and other large cities of the country are concerned, since all of them (seventy-seven in number), except Cleveland and Cincinnati, have abandoned the Manager Plan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carson have returned to West Park, after an absence of two years, and are stopping temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. Quilla Woods of First Ave. At the recent thrift meeting held in Third Calvary Baptist church, Miss Lillian Berry, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Leroy J. Price, E. 86th St., opened the program with an exceptionally interesting talk on "Millinery". Mrs. Price gave the church its big bible. Several addresses were made.

Prof. Newbell N. Puckett, of Western Reserve University, will address the Laymen's League and its friends, Sunday afternoon, 4 p. m., at Cedar "Y", E. 77th and Cedar Ave. Dr. Puckett spent several years in the South in an intensive study of our people, their ways and customs, etc. His address will be exceptionally interesting and illuminating and ought to be heard by as many of our thotful as can possibly arrange to attend the Laymen's League meeting, Sunday, 4 p. m., at Cedar "Y".

A list of Associated Charities stations to which all donations may be made and where persons in need of food and clothing will be cared for follows: General service center at 2525 Euclid Ave., branches at 2945 Woodhill Rd., 8123 Carnegie Ave., 10605 Superior Ave., 5620 Broadway, E. 40th St. and Perkins Ave., 11705 Detroit Ave., 9201 Miles Ave., 15201 St. Clair Ave., 2111 Prospect Ave., 2630 W. 14th St., 1970 W. 32d St. and 2587 E. 55th St., or the Wayfarers' lodge, 2164 Chester Ave.

The Illustrated Feature Section, which some of our weekly publications are using, is gotten out by the W. B. Ziff Co., "Publishers' Representative", of Chicago. It is supposedly "a co-operative enterprise" but is simply a scheme with which the Jewish firm benefits MOST and uses the circulation of our publications so misguided as to use The Illustrated Feature Section. "Cut it out, brethren!" It seems strange that any of our papers can be so easily duped and taken advantage of.

About twenty friends of "The Blossom Triplets" met at the P. W. A. last week Friday evening, and organized the "Colored Republican League of Cuyahoga County", Bundy being elected pres., George, Payne and Mrs. Louise Pridgeon, vice-presidents; Wm. R. Green, treas.; N. L. McGhee, sec., and J. W. Wills, chair. ways and means com. Why this "jim-crow" county league, when the League of Republican clubs of Cuyahoga county has been in existence for years and always wide open to our voters who desire to become members of it?

A new dramatic group, "The Art Ramblers," under the direction of Mrs. R. P. Keesecker/and sponsored by Woodland Center, will present two plays "The Flight of the Herons," and "Obstinacy," at the Woodland Center auditorium, E. 46th St. and Woodland Ave., March 28, '30. The cast includes, Mrs. Ruby Slaughter, Mrs. Welcome T. Blue, Jr., Cecilia Wheeler, Essie Hague, Marguerite Pennybacker, Dr. Wm. P. Saunders, Wm. Drake, J. G. Scott, Clarence Atkins, and Dr. H. Hunter. Isaac Coleman is scenic director and Lynn Coleman is the designer. E. M. Miller, sec.

STOCKHOLDERS OF A. T. & T. INCREASE

OUR LESSON

We must learn to govern ourselves and work together for our own advancement. If we do not learn to govern ourselves and work together for our own advancement, we may be very sure that we will be governed by others in their own interest as well as worked by others for their own advancement and not ours.—George W. WERE WE SOLD OUT FOR A FEW JOBS?

FOR EARLY WEAR, TAFFETA OR SATIN; LATER COME HATS OF LACE STRAW

PROVIDING it is a soft unlined affair, that is to say, without stiffness, a hat of taffeta or satin is very smart for spring. A little cap like the model pictured first in this group, made either of black satin or taffeta, color-matched to the costume, makes an admirable "first hat."

In its back-bow treatment this model conveys a very important style message. Even the hats with brims display their bow trimmings across the back. The bow may be very tiny or it may be a huge arrangement of loops and ends extended so as to show from the front.

Speaking of bows, surely this may be aptly called a "bow season." The new frocks and blouses are animated with whole flocks of bows and milady's hat follows suit in this matter of bow trimmings.

The motif on the shapely hat to the right at the top is in line with the season's trend which combines felt with both straw and fabric in the fashioning of the new chapeaux. The mode decrees that hats must frame the face to a flattering degree, and the long, side drape given to this hat carries out these instructions.

In fashion circles we are hearing much in regard to transparent effects. Dresses are of the filmiest sort, fashioned as they are of thin laces, nets, chiffon and sheerest of woolens. Even things knitted are running to lacy openwork patternings. What is true in regard to frocks and blouses concerning transparency, pertains also to hats for spring and the ensuing summer. Wherefore the revival of old-time horsehair braid as a medium for chic millinery is to be expected.

Two fetching models of horsehair are herewith illustrated. In the instance of each of these hats the crown is fitted very snugly to the head, which is a point meticulously observed by the milliner this season.

The shape to the left is an extreme type, emphasizing the vogue for silhouettes which frame the face. The brim of this hat surrounds the forehead in a halo of transparency—an effect which is growing in favor, milliners using malines, horsehair braid, lacy straws or thread lace to achieve it.

Lace straw is the smartest of the smart new media for hats, according to advance millinery displays. Though made of straw, the lace follows the actual patternings of thread lace

CAPED FROCKS OF PRINTED CREPE THE SWAGGER NOTE FOR SPRING

YOU can tell the moment you glimpse a frock of gay printed crepe made with a cape, that it is distinctly advance. There's nothing smarter on the boards than these caped prints.

The spring costume in the picture flaunts a cape of circular cut, the neckline finished with a soft tie of self-print. The quest for these new printed costumes will reveal many plaited cape versions as well, the plaits falling from a fitted round yoke. Frequently the skirt is plaited to match the cape.

To emphasize its modishness, the really and truly up-to-the-moment gown of piquant print worn with a matching cape, instead of going utterly sleeveless as one might suppose, takes upon itself quaint little puffs or cap sleeves. Thus with the cape removed, the gown gives further evidence of its smart styling, for tiny novelty sleeves are the latest whim of fashion.

It is interesting to note how most every gown has its matching wrap, or should have. If not a cape then a bolero jacket is made of the same materials as the dress or skirt and if neither of these then a hip-length or finger-tip coat.

The leaf design of the print pictured bespeaks that which is among the newest in patterned silks. Fruit motifs are also very new.

One would be inclined to think that polka dots had outlived their popularity. On the contrary there is a veritable stampede of dots in the fabric realm. Not only are large bold dotted effects good, but the very latest silks are pin-dotted. The latter in black or navy with white dots so tiny they look like pin pricks, are conspicuously featured for immediate wear. Frocks made of these neat silks are cuffed and collared very effectively with rows of white organdie petals.

Even newer than dots are the attractive star-patterned silks which are included in every display of spring prints.

EUROPE IS AFTER SPEEDWAY HONORS

Manufacturers and Drivers Making Extensive Plans for 1931 Race.

Europe has definitely decided to wrest speedway honors of the world from the hands of American speed car builders and drivers—if not this year, certainly in 1931.

This is the observation of T. E. "Pop" Myers, general manager of the Indianapolis Motor speedway, who has just returned from a lengthy jaunt over the Old world gathering foreign entries for the International 500-mile race, which will be held here on May 30.

Plan for 1931 Race.

"In France, in England, in Germany and in Italy," says Myers, "manufacturers and drivers are casting their plans for competition in the Indianapolis classic. This year we are certain of the finest representation Europe can muster. But already, while they are planning for the 1930 race, they are making more elaborate and extensive preparations for the 1931 race.

"Europe took the measure of American speeds from 1913, when Jules Goux headed a foreign contingent that kept control of American speedways, until 1919, when the late Howdy Wilcox started a series of Yankee victories that kept foreign competition in the background.

"But just as England spent years and many thousands of dollars preparing for the successful shattering of the 156.04 miles an hour straightaway record of Tommy Milton, made in 1919, so is all Europe working to break the speed rule of America in the 500-mile race at Indianapolis, which is rightfully looked upon as the outstanding speed test for cars and drivers in the entire world.

"Whereas the foreign competition in May will be confined largely to individual entries, with possibly two teams of factory cars, it is definitely admitted that England, France, Germany and Italy will have one or more teams of national cars in the 1931 contest.

Importance of Preparation.

"Conscious of the importance of preparation for the gruelling test of man and metal in a 500-mile race running at Indianapolis, the speed car builders are content this year to permit individuals to carry on the task of representation. But the following year European factories will sponsor the cars which will carry their national colors in the big international race."

The survey recently made by Myers in his European trip indicates that there will be more foreign cars in the coming 500-mile race than any year since 1916. He anticipates that in 1931 at least half of the cars starting the race will be of foreign make.

Operating Costs Lower on Average Automobile

The cost of operating an average automobile has declined 3½ cents a mile, or 35.7 per cent, since 1924. Greater fuel and lubrication economy, as well as longer life of present cars and improved highways, account for the reduced cost. The items involved in the cost are gasoline, oil, tires and tubes, maintenance, depreciation, license, garage, insurance and interest. F. A. Bower, an automotive engineer, credits three engineering contributions—oil filters, air cleaners and crankcase ventilation—with reducing cost of operation more than a cent a mile. These devices have decreased the necessity for bearing adjustments and have reduced wear on rings and pistons and materially lessened oil consumption.

May Be More Cars Than Roads Can Accommodate

The American automobile industry is making so many automobiles every day that if placed end to end the average day's production would stretch for 45 miles. The same people who used to worry about the automobile saturation point have figured out that this 45 miles a day is much faster than roads are being built, and they foresee the day when there will be more cars than roads. Statisticians, however, calculate that it will be something over two million years before this occurs.

Mousetrap Burglar Alarm Quite Effective on Auto

An ordinary mousetrap can be converted into an effective auto burglar alarm. Two wires with spring clips attached to their outer ends are attached as indicated. One clip is attached to the live terminal of the horn and the other to the metal frame of the car. When the trap is set the circuit is open. When sprung, the circuit is closed and the horn blows continuously. The trap can be placed so that moving either the steering arm or clutch pedal will spring the trigger. —Popular Science Monthly.

Spark Plugs Often May Cause Engine "Bucking"

Missing of the engine and "bucking" frequently blamed on the carburetor are often due to nothing more than improper adjustment of spark plug or breaker point gaps or both. Before making carburetor adjustment in high compression engines the car owner or mechanic should make sure that the plug gap is adjusted according to the car manufacturer's recommendations, and breaker contact points are filed square and likewise adjusted.

Dirty or worn out plugs also cause trouble often blamed on the carburetor, and spark plugs and breaker contact points should be examined at least twice a year.

AUTOMOBILE HINTS

Soon we will begin to see advertisements announcing the sale of houses having all the comforts of an automobile.

Exhaust valves are liable to cause trouble in the engine because of extremely high temperatures to which they are subjected.

In order to give the cooling system proper care, once each week is not too often to completely drain the radiator and refill with fresh water.

It is just a mental slip that makes so many drivers think they are helping the engine start when they use the choke before the starter gets into operation.

Loose lugs permit the tire to weave from side to side and thus induce considerably more tire wear than that due to the normal turning motion of the wheel.

Since the state of Pennsylvania has declined to pay damages to the owner of a motor car with which a deer collided, there seems to be nothing to do except start proceedings against the animal.

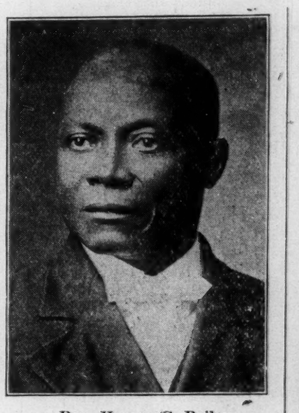
AUTOMOBILES NOW CONTROLLED BY VOICE

R. J. Wensley, engineer of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, demonstrating how an auto works by "voice control," a new development of the "electric eye," a light-sensitive cell. By calling into the phone, "Go," "Stop" and "Back Up," the sound impulses were transferred into waves and are picked up by the electric eye, which in turn operated the car as directed. Traffic officials at the National Automobile show, where the demonstration took place, were favorably impressed.

HOW THEY DID IT!

"I Want to Commend Your Steadfast Refusal (the Editor's) to Confer With Blossom. That Is Where "The White Man" Gets the Negro—in Private Conference Two to One—Two White Men—One "Negro", and He Is Hobbled to Fit the White Man's Program!!!"—Rev. Geo. Wilson Brent (white), Madison, N. J.

DUDLEY S. BLOSSOM



Rev. Horace C. Bailey.

D. E. MORGAN

January 31, 1930, at a conference in The Gazette office, participated in by our three councilmen and the editor, the Blossom appointment matter was gone into thoroly, Messrs. George, Payne and Bundy, especially the latter, frankly admitted the "mandate" from our people of their districts to oust Blossom, and George announced a conference of the three with the city manager on the Blossom matter at 4:30 P. M., that day, Payne and Bundy also indicating that they were to hold a conference with Blossom, that afternoon. The conference with the city manager, according to Councilman George, was substantially a plea upon the part of Mr. Morgan for acquiescence in the appointment of Blossom. Following this, the city manager and Bossom began conferences with several other members of the race, the most notable being Rev. Horace C. Bailey, who, he says, only agreed to discontinue opposition to the appointment of Blossom. That was too much. It was to Dr. Bailey that Director Blossom was most insulting on occasions when the former went to the latter asking the admission of his granddaughter to the City hospital nurses' training school. Both Hopkins and Blossom turned him (Bailey) down flat, on more than one occasion. We well remember that after one of Dr. Bailey's distressing visits to Blossom, he came to The Gazette office and talked of his miserable experience—insults and coarse mistreatment. The recital was enough to bring tears to one's eyes.

It seems strange, possibly, to some, but it is nevertheless true that no one has ever been able to mix religion and politics—oil and water! So it is not strange that Rev. Horace C. Bailey has failed, this time. It was Rev. Russell S. Brown who made a like failure, last fall. Director Dudley S. Blossom treated Bailey contemptuously, last year, when the latter called on him in an effort to secure the entrance of his granddaughter to the nurses' training school at City Hospital, Blossom winding up the conference with that most insulting statement that is all but seared in the very marrow of the bones of our people of this community: "No, I am not going to allow Negro girls and boys to train at City Hospital while I am director." And yet, in recent weeks Dud. Blossom coaxed Bailey to his office and so "soft-soaped" him that the latter "withdrew his opposition" to the former's re-appointment as welfare director of the city of Cleveland, so he told the editor of The Gazette, Monday, Feb. 17, in The Gazette office.

The Truth!

What would cause other people to gnash their teeth and gird their loins is question of debate for us. Kick us, beat us, pile depredations upon us, revile us, abuse us, lie about us, malign us and even impugn our valor and we are not unanimously insulted. It seems impossible to establish unanimity of insult in the black race.—Chicago (Ill.) Whip.

"THE BLOSSOM TRIPLETS"

And City Manager Daniel E. Morgan to Be Issues in the Campaign, Next Year.

Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor The Gazette, City.

Dear Sir:—After reading carefully The Gazette of Feb. 22, '30, I desire to say that I am in hearty sympathy with you and therefore am laying my copy aside for reference, next year, during the campaign when I hope to be actively engaged with you and others reminding the people of the third and fourth districts of Councilmen LeRoy N. Bundy, Lawrence O. Payne and Clayborne George's shameless refusal to obey the mandate of our people of those districts and the entire city, given them, last fall, during the campaign—to do all in their power to help oust City Welfare Director Dudley S. Blossom, as well as City Manager Wm. R. Hopkins. There are hundreds, yes, thousands of our people in this section of the city who will not overlook or forgive their flagrant disregard of their clear duty in this matter. I expect to be actively engaged against the candidacies of these men, next year, in case they have the temerity to stand for re-election to the City Council of Cleveland.

I want you to know that I also shall not forget City Manager Daniel E. Morgan's disapproval of the Finkle ordinance, passed by the City Council, to award Garret A. Morgan the pittance of $2000 for the heroic service he gave this city at its officials' request at the time of the tunnel disaster, in 1916. This most reprehensible act is but little less offensive than his appointment of Welfare Director Dudley S. Blossom in the face of the letters and resolution protests of the loyal, self and race-respecting members of the race in this community.

In conclusion, I wish to assure you that there are thousands of our people in this community that thoroly appreciate the honesty, fearlessness and loyalty of "The Old Reliable" Gazette.

Mrs. Boston J. Prince,
(Wife of the Pastor of Messiah Baptist Church, E. 46th and Woodland Ave., City.).

IS IT ANY USE TO CONTEND FOR RIGHTS?

Colored Americans are the only race, responsible members of which are in favor of submitting to discrimination on the claim that their race "always will be discriminated against." The Jews are still contending, after over 1900 years of universal discrimination, and are winning even social rights today. The Irish at home have contended for 700 years and are winning because they will die rather than submit. The race that says it's of no use to resist, downs itself and the world then will say, "Negroes are not worthy of equal rights; they are by nature without self-respect and have no 'guts'." The world respects only those who resent and resist proscriptions for race.

Let us be worthy of the abolitionists, worthy of our own fathers who have died in every war to vindicate the title of their race to equal liberty, and forever resist denial of rights in our native land, however long race discrimination may continue. To submit is to deserve contempt.—Boston (Mass.) Guardian.

"THE BLOSSOM TRIPLETS".

It does not seem possible that three persons, candidates for office in quest of votes, could possibly go thru several weeks of campaigning, day and night pledging the voters that, if elected, they would do all in their power to oust a man from office who had denied them and their people, of all the population of a great city like Cleveland, rights and privileges (in a public institution) in a most insulting manner, and then fail to do so, with victory in their hands—only dependent upon their keeping their pledge to the people who elected them. And yet that is exactly what Councilmen Clayborne George, Leroy Bundy and Lawrence Payne did in the case of City Welfare Director Dudley S. Blossom, when on Monday, Feb. 17, '30, they "waived their opposition", —not ours—and City Manager Daniel E. Morgan, knowing the condition of affairs thoroly, so flagrantly insulted all of our loyal, self and race respecting people in this city by appointing Blossom, city welfare director. All three councilmen, in a conference with the editor of The Gazette about ten days previous to Feb. 17, '30, freely admitted they had a "mandate" from our people of their districts to oust Blossom from office for his most miserable treatment of them. The statement that "Manager Morgan would have appointed him, anyhow" is not true. That fact he made clear in a conference with the editor of this paper. And even if it were true, which was not the case, even that would not excuse them for breaking their pledge to our people of their districts and all the rest of the city, because when they "waived" their opposition to Blossom, they were not keeping but breaking their pledge and ignoring the people and the pledge they so often and so loudly proclaimed, day and night, in public meetings during last fall's campaign. It is an unpardonable act for which Bundy, Payne and George will be made to atone, if they dare to face the electorate of their districts again, next year, seeking re-election. Our people of this community had a somewhat similar experience in the case of Councilman E. J. Gregg upon whom they visited a stinging defeat at the polls, last fall, because of his sad exhibition of disloyalty when he voted for a white Democrat in preference to one of his own people. Our people, especially the intelligent ones, will not condone such flagrant disloyalty, to the race, in their public servants, especially those of color. They have to work too hard to elect them to office to quietly submit to such shameless mistreatment, and Councilmen Payne, Bundy and George will be made to recognize this fact, next year in the fall, should they stand again as candidates. Nor will our city manager be forgotten when the opportunity affords.
